Collaborative Planning for Land Use and Transportation: Lessons Learned from Pilot Sustainable Development Studies in the New York Metropolitan Region

Three pilot sustainable development studies taking place in Rockland, Westchester and Suffolk counties are exploring a model for both collaboration and cross-functional planning. This panel will bring together local and state perspectives to look at the motivations for involvement in the studies as well as their results, both positive and negative, and the challenges of implementing their recommendations.

Panelists will include:

Honorable Linda Cooper, Supervisor, Town of Yorktown, NY
Robert Dennison, Hudson Valley Regional Director, NYS Department of Transportation, and Chair, NYMTC Program, Finance & Administration Committee
Honorable Thom Kleiner, Supervisor, Town of Orangetown, NY
Valerie Scopaz, Director, Department of Planning, Town of Southold, NY
